No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAR 23, 1864

THE TEST OF DEVOTION TO THE UNION.—We have a great deal of talk about "the Constitution as it is and the Union as it was." The phrase is the shibboleth of Democracy, and though it is uttered with no more idea of its meaning than if it was Greek or Hebrew, we ask those who mouth it so much to read what Gen Gantt, a democrat and a secessionist for a while, says about it as the watchword of a political party We quote from one of his recent speeches

Now, down in Arkansas, we test Union men in this way "What are you for?" "I am for the government." "Do you sustain the war power of the government?" "Well—if—ah!—if you will give me the Constitution, and give me the Union as it was and the Constitution as it was, and all that I do." Well we set him down as no Union man How are you going to get the Union as it was? Do you want the dead negroes brought to life? Shall the gory battle fields give up their dead? Shall these great questions that have gone down in the vortex of war be resurrected for us to fight over again? Sir if I could call from its resting place the Union as it was—if you mean the negro by that—I would not do it. (Loud applause) Why do you make this point, and say you want the Union as it was? You know you are going to get the Union as it was but you won t get the negroes in the Union—that is all and why don't you make a clean sweep of it and tell the people "I am for the negroes" When you say you want the Union as it was, you don t mean that, you mean that you want the negroes I will tell you just what you mean You expect that the government will be restored, and that you will be able to build up another great party upon slavery that will reach over the North and the South but you cannot get that, you cannot get Southern men with that the time has gone by, and the politicians who attempt it will go under. We are going to break up these party questions We are for blending this great nation together to [illegible] government letting other issues rise hereafter as events shall call them forth [illegible] and political platforms and politicians go down; but let the people keep the flag of your country always erect and the Union and the Constitution will [illegible] (Loud applause)

WE DON'T KNOW.—The inquiry has been often made during the last week why the Union County Union Convention rejected the following resolution

Resolved That in the event that Congress shall submit amendments to the Constitution of the United States forever abolishing slavery in all portions of the United States to the several State Legislatures, that we are in favor of the Legislature of Oregon supporting such proposed amendments

We confess that we do not understand how any patriotic man could reasonably object to the passage of such a resolution, but as good men differ we are not disposed to be uncharitable in our judgment of motives We have no doubt however, that very soon those who oppose such a action will find themselves out in the cold. It is time for men who love freedom and the Union because it protects liberty, to stand up firmly for all measures which may tend constitutionally to save the Nation from the curse of slavery

THE THREE GREAT CITIES.—Wilson Flint, in a letter written from Chicago January 6th, to the San Francisco Journal, thus speaks of the terminus and the half-way house of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad

"Build the Pacific Railway, and then contemplate the [illegible] the three great centers of business on the North American Continent, each to be unrivalled in its particular sphere of action—New York as the warehouse of merchandise and manufactures; Chicago as the magazine of breadstuffs; and San Francisco as the [illegible] to regulate the exchanges of commerce from her vaults into which is to be poured the precious metals from a myriad of mines, richer than the Ophir of Solomon NEGROES AT ROME.—The Rome correspondent of the London Times says that at the last annual Academia Poliglotta" of the great Catholic College of the Propaganda, the youths who carried off the palm were two negroes rejoicing in the names of William Samba and John Provost Their delivery and action were wonderful and called forth thunders of applause even in a church.

UTAH.—A Salt Lake letter says that never since Utah was added to the domains of our venerable Uncle Samuel did the City of Saints contain such a huge pile of "transient residents" as now. The gentile population have got a fearful dose of the development mania, that is, they have got the metal fever, and they are daily discovering gold mines, lead mines, iron mines, coal mines and mare's nests.

CHEERING WORDS.—An old subscriber, at Oakland, whose good will is manifested by good works, sends us a handsome list of new subscribers to our campaign paper, and closes his letter, after referring to the wonderful delightful weather which has blessed us, with these words "We expect to raise good crops this year, and to elect our entire Union ticket—'you bet.' Yours, for the Union cause for ever."

CATHOLIC BISHOPS OPPOSING THE FENIANS.—Bishop Duggan of Chicago, has followed the example of Bishop Wood of Philadelphia, in denouncing the Fenian Brotherhood, and directing the Catholics to have nothing to do with the organization

PRECOCIOUS.—There is a person in this city who enjoys to-day his eighth birth day, yet is married and has several children He is a fine mathematician, can solve you any problem in Davies' Algebra, is an excellent linguist, reads Latin, Greek and Hebrew, and is not unfamiliar with the modern languages He writes a pleasant address, and even sermons that he turns off have been pronounced excellent. Curious as this case may seem, it is literally true We do not claim it as a wonderful character of our climate, for the person referred to had seen his eleventh birth-day before coming to California —S. F Bulletin, Feb. 29th.

Unconditional Union Men.

At a meeting of the Unconditional Union Central Committee of New York city on the evening of the 8th of February, the following resolution, to which an appropriate preamble was prefixed, was passed without a dissenting voice.

Resolved, That while realizing that the armies of the rebellion must be put down by the soldiers of the republic, it is the duty of the Union party solemnly to declare that it will henceforward struggle for the total absolute and permanent overthrow of human slavery in the United States, by the exertion of every power at the disposal of the State and Federal Governments and citizens under the Constitution thereby securing the emancipation of every slave and the protection of the personal liberty of every human being, untainted with crime in the United States and every State and Territory thereof, and by nominating only such candidates as are zealous in the prosecution of these great ends

Horace Greeley, who was among the speakers said

Fellow Citizens I greet you as among the most vigorously patriotic of all our loyal citizens. The time has come when, in the words of Daniel Webster Union and Liberty are one and inseparable. And the time has come when the loyal North has become one and inseparable in its determination that liberty shall prevail in the present struggle I do not believe that the war is yet over We still have, as we have had, much open force visible treason and secret treachery to contend against. But the cause has gone steadily on, until we now hold two thirds of the territory with which the rebels began. The Mississippi, the main artery of the Confederacy, was seized from them six months ago, New Orleans, the heart and center of life of the rebellion, has been in our possession for two years The rebellion is tottering to its final defeat. I do not fear so much the arms of the rebellion as I do its principles Both our defeats and our victories have contributed to the victory of the just cause Six months ago we were struggling with the rebels for Missouri, but no rebel force now for a long time has dared to show itself in that State In like manner the rebels claim Tennessee, but for a long time have not dared show themselves there. The whole territory which we hold now we hold on the principles of freedom Even if the rebels should recover the territory of those two States, they would not be able to re-establish slavery there Six months ago we asked them to take pay for slavery and give it up They refused They would not take the money, but now both of those States are themselves getting rid of slavery without our paying a cent for it. They might have had $20 000,000 each for doing this Nor do any of the Copperheads now find fault with the employment of slaves as soldiers We have learned a costly lesson about the real spirit of slavery and of its allies Of this lesson we had a special instance in the riots in New York city last July, when innocent people, against whom no crime whatever was even alleged were hunted down merely because they were [illegible] in favor of the Jeff. Davis Government. New York has the greatest stake in the prosperity of the country of any city in it. This prosperity would be twice as great as it is, if all our country, instead of half of it was a customer for the products which New York has to sell, products adapted to a high civilization and not bought by the laboring classes of a slave holding community We need but the extension of liberty to make New York the greatest city in the world, and we are bound to have it There are many among us who never saw how hateful the spirit of slavery was, until it exemplified itself as it was in the flames and blood of the riots of July. One word about candidates I have no candidate for any office But we ought to have six candidates put up for Congress in this city to whom all the world will look up with the thought that these men are the greatest six men on the Western continent. I don t care whether they are journeymen bakers, merchants or mechanics Let them be the best men, not such as go and button hole people and ask for their votes Let them be made candidates by a requisition signed by the best citizens, and it is no matter at all whether they are themselves citizens of the districts they represent or not. And then let all men go to work and elect them, as nominated fairly Let this method of fair and open requisition be used, throwing over all the machinery of the primary meetings I am not so sanguine as some, but I believe that if the Union party does justice to itself, it may elect in the coming Fall exactly such candidates as it pleases The people have at least made up their minds to this that an election is an election and the beaten party must submit until next time The people mean that this rebellion shall be put squarely down, And if this principle is once established I believe we are to have a hundred years of such prosperity as the world has never known When we only learn this lesson properly, that treason, insurrection and violations of law are not the modes of healing political disappointments we shall be peaceful and happy, and shall be faithful to our selves our children, our principles and our God

In the foregoing sketch of Mr Greeley's remarks, all of which are practical and patriotic, we notice especially his suggestions in regard to the selection of candidates He proposes to "throw over all the machinery of primary meetings," and by the recommendation of the best citizens, to elect men who are qualified rather than those who secure nominations by the button-holing process Such a course will bring good men into notice, and in all probability secure their election, as almost everywhere, the great majority of sensible people are becoming sick of caucus dictation, controlled by unprincipled schemers, whose highest idea of political wisdom, seems to be the election of their tools to office, without regard to fitness or moral worth.

SPEECHES OF GEN. GRANT.—We doubt if any body ever heard or ever will hear General Grant "make a speech." He is not one of that kind. But his deeds speak for him For some days past he has been in St Louis on a visit to a sick child, and though frequently hard pressed by the people for a speech, he invariably bows his acknowledgements and apologizes for his reticence On Friday evening the General was honored by the populace with a serenade His appearance on the balcony was greeted with the most flattering cheers In response to calls for a speech, he took off his hat, and amid profound silence, said

"Gentlemen—I thank you for this honor I cannot make a speech. It is something I have never done, and never intend to do, and I beg you will excuse me"

Loud cheers followed this brief address, at the conclusion of which the General replaced his hat, took a cigar from his pocket, lit it, and stood on the balcony in the presence of the crowd, puffing his Havana, and watching the rockets as they ascended and burst in the air

"Speech! speech!" vociferated the multitude, and several gentlemen near him urged the General to say something to satisfy the people, but he declined Judge Lord, of the Land Court, appeared very enthusiastic, and placing his hand on Gen Grant's shoulder, said "Tell them you can fight for them, but can t talk to them—do tell them that"

"I must get some one else to say that for me," replied the General but the multitude continuing to cry out "Speech! speech!" he leaned over the railing, blew a wreath of smoke from his lips, and said: "Gentlemen—Making speeches is not my business I never did it in my life, and never will I thank you, however, for your attendance here,' and with that the General retired

Subsequently a grand dinner was given to the General, and another effort made to draw him out While the President proposed a toast to his health, U. S sat by his side serenely smoking When he arose and stood upon a chair, a perfect hurricane of applause rose from every part of the hall, and prevented him from speaking until it had subsided Quiet being restored, Gen Grant merely remarked that he could not find words adequately to return thanks for the compliment offered him and would not make the attempt —New York Tribune, 3d February

THE CHOICE OF A PRESIDENT.—Senator Sherman, of Ohio has introduced in the United States Senate a series of resolutions defining the constitutional provisions for the election of President by the Electoral College or by the House of Representatives. The question has been raised whether a majority of the Electors actually appointed and qualified will be sufficient to elect a President It is also enquired whether in case the election should devolve upon the House of Representatives a majority of the States actually represented in that body will be sufficient to effect a choice It is apprehended that next November some of the States will not choose Electors or have Representatives at Washington, and there is a natural anxiety to have the above question decided in advance Sherman proposes that Congress shall affirm the sufficiency of a majority of the electoral votes actually cast in a majority of the States actually represented in Congress A careful reading of the twelfth amendment to the Constitution causes us to wonder why there should be any doubt as to the number required That amendment provides that The President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted The person having the greatest number of votes for President shall be the President if such a number be a majority of the whole number of Electors appointed' If no Electors be appointed in South Carolina for instance the vote to which that State would have been entitled cannot be counted at all The only evidence before the Congressional Convention as to the number of Electors appointed, will be the certificates which are to be opened in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution Sherman's second resolution merely affirms what is already clear

Resolved, That if a majority of the Presidential Electors, duly appointed and qualified vote for one person, he is the President;

The third resolution reads as follows

Resolved, That if the election of President devolves on the House of Representatives, and the votes of a majority of the States represented in the House be cast for one person he is the President

The twelfth amendment to the Constitution, referring to an election by the House, says 'A quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the States, and a majority of all the States shall be necessary to a choice" When Senator Sherman proposes to substitute for the language of the Constitution "the vote of a majority of the States represented in the House," he invites Congress to transcend its constitutional powers

Practically, we do not apprehend any serious difficulty in determining the choice of a President From present appearances, there will not be more than six States without loyal Governments next November, to wit North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Texas, and North Carolina and Texas are not beyond hope of reorganization in time to participate in the choice of a Chief Magistrate Either the candidate of the Baltimore Convention or the candidate of the Chicago Convention will receive a majority of the votes of the Electors, 'appointed and be declared elected in accordance with the Constitution

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to March 22d.

NEW YORK, March 21—The Herald's special says A cavalry force sent in pursuit of the rebels who recently made a raid into Bath, succeeded in taking some of them prisoners

The Tribune's special says We have fuller and more correct statements as to the leading provisions of the new Revenue bill before the Ways and Means Committee Tobacco is to be taxed 25 per cent ad valorem leaf and 10 cents per pound manufactured petroleum, 5 cents per gallon on crude and 11 cents on refined, distilled spirits $1 per gallon. Two members of the Committee are said to be opposed to this high tax one of them obstinately from the fact that 50 cents per gallon on whisky would produce more revenue than $1. Taxes imposed in the bill prepared at the Treasury Department on tobacco and whisky may go into the Ways and Means Committee reduced and possibly, but not probably, go to the House reduced The charge of 10 cents per gallon on refined petroleum has already been made. In addition a very large increase of the revenue is sought to be made in the new bill by doubling the price of stamps on bonds, etc taxing instruments and forms not heretofore taxed such as letters patent deeds for conveyance of personal property, copies of instructions, executions and forms for justices' courts, etc There is no tax whatever on malt beer taxed $1 50 per barrel.

WASHINGTON, March 20—Prisoners from Richmond assert that the rebels have already secretly executed a number of officers attached to colored regiments It is said that several have mysteriously disappeared from Libby Prison

LOUISVILLE, March 20—The rebels, 500 strong, under Hughes and Ferguson attacked one of Gen Hobson's camps on the morning of the 16th near Bennett's Ferry on this side of the Cumberland, but were repulsed with a loss of four killed and several wounded Next day Hobson's cavalry attacked the rebels under Col Hamilton, killing six and wounding several Hobson has nearly broken up the guerrilla bands along the Cumberland, many of them are daily surrendering themselves

CHICAGO March 22—Specials from Washington state that the Quicksilver case still remains in abeyance, as it was not reached by the Judges on the calendar in the general conference on Saturday The Judges will hold another meeting on Thursday when the matter will be decided and the opinion of the Court ordered written by the acting Chief Justice

A caucus of Republican members was held at the Capitol last night The objects were to harmonize views on important pending questions, including the financial measures necessary for the support of the Government and the bill on the rebellious States, to guarantee to certain States whose Governments have been usurped and overthrown a republican form of government. Votes were taken as to the measures which should have precedence and it was generally agreed that those of most public importance should be considered first.

NEW YORK, March 22—A special dispatch to the World, dated Washington, March 21st says Gen Grant will be here in the morning On Thursday he reviews the entire Army of the Potomac In the reorganization to be effected it is thought that Hancock, Sedgwick and Meade will retain their present positions Gen Grant is exercising a superior control of the entire army.

The House Judiciary Committee unanimously authorized their financial report to be made and ask its adoption by the House

A joint resolution has been introduced, submitting to the Legislatures of the several States the following proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States Article 3d, section 1st. Slavery being incompatible with a free government, is forever prohibited in the United States, and no involuntary servitude shall be permitted only as a punishment for crime Section 2d Congress shall have power to enforce the foregoing section of this Article by appropriate legislation

The House Military Committee have considered at length the question of reimbursing the States for calling out militia, but came to no definite conclusion It is announced that several million dollars are involved in this matter It will meet with considerable opposition in both Committee and House.

Gen Grant has directed that recruiting for the cavalry regiments shall cease.

In pursuance of an earnest request by Admiral Farragut, the Navy Department has ordered the sloop of war Brooklyn and the double turreted monitor Canandaigua to be prepared for service in the Gulf immediately The ships will proceed to sea this week Orders have been issued that two other monitors should follow immediately

The Herald's special says There is no probability that any sale of the surplus gold in the Treasury will be made until at least after the result of the spring campaign shall have been ascertained. Restrictions imposed by the bill would of themselves prevent the immediate sale of any quantity sufficient to affect the market.

Members of the Committee of Ways and Means are themselves ignorant of the rate of tax to be imposed on some of the most important articles

There is no doubt that Lee's army is daily receiving accessions and that he is preparing for an early spring campaign. His cavalry is being reorganized and will be unusually formidable The Infantry is constantly coming up from various quarters and in a few weeks we shall doubtless have an army in our front not at all inferior to that of last season.

The reorganization of the Army of the Potomac is to commence at once All corps remain in the [illegible] although it is generally understood that the 1st and 10th corps are to be merged into the 2d and 6th

TRAVEL ON THE COLUMBIA.—The O. S. N. Company are running some fine boats at the present time, between this city and the head of navigation on the Columbia, and a trip to Lapwai is quite a different undertaking to what it was a few years ago, when river facilities were confined to the Indian Canoe, and when the overland conveyance was limited to the Cayuses of the country. Then it was a toilsome, dangerous, and disagreeable trip; one which was only performed in cases of the most extreme urgency. Now it is both expeditious and pleasant, and is frequently resorted to as a means of agreeable pastime and diversion. A correspondent lately from California, who was led to suppose that he would find traveling on the Columbia river, full of unpleasant incidents, writes us a good humored account of his trip, in which he is especially complimentary to the steamer Tenino, and her officers. "Leaving the Dalles at 6 o'clock, we rode 15 miles behind the iron horse, and on arriving at Celilo, stepped on board an admirable boat, commanded by Capt. Gray, a perfect gentlemen, who thoroughly understands and faithfully performs his duties. The Tenino has been recently repaired, painted and refurnished, and she is an all respects a model boat, the pride of the Columbia and the pet of the traveling public. Her table was luxuriously and bountifully arranged and as attentively served as that of any hotel on the coast. The steward's department under charge of Mr. Hill, formerly caterer of one of the best clubs in San Francisco, is just what it should be, and if other boats belonging to the company are like the Tenino, those who travel on them on their way to the mines, will find that the ... told in California about the 'ill natured and exacting monopoly,' are wholly untrue. The object was to induce miners to come overland, but it was a very mean thing to make ... so entirely false; for the sake of truth, and to promote the convenience of the many hundreds, who wish to come to the mines." This is a very truthful statement, and when it is remembered that only three or four years have answered to bring about these changes of travel on the Columbia, we are inclined to give the enterprising gentlemen composing the company, great credit for their efforts, in keeping up with the times; and we are forced to the conviction that this is only but the beginning of an era of rapid and continued progress, which the opening ... and superior advantages of the upper country are destined to stimulate and ...

WATTS SEWING MACHINES. — The office of the State Telegraph is in the office of the ... Hotel in this city, and a good joke is told of a verdant merchant from the interior, who happened recently to be stopping in town ... the Pioneer his headquarters. His eye had been attracted to the instrument for ... the work, several times, when finally he stepped back to the Clerk's desk, and inquired of Mr. Arrigoni the price of those machines. Failing to understand him ... explanation was elicited by mine host, when he was told the "machine" was not a ... of sewing machines, but a telegraphic ... He blushed, stammered, and ... "though it was a 'Grover & Baker,' ... wanted to buy some, to take up country."

... OF STREET LINES.—Dr. Weatherford had a suit before the Recorder yesterday, ... by the street commissioner, for the ... projecting a new fence over the side ... Salmon street. After examination ... was submitted to the Recorder, and ... was discharged, on the ground that ... a person could be punished for trespass upon a street there must be an established survey, located by the surveyor, and ... by the Common Council, until which ... is no established line that property ... can be made to respect. The street ... has never been officially surveyed, ... than to establish a grade.

... IN TOWN.—Among the passengers by the Brother Jonathan are several English notables—the new Governor of Vancouver ... his family, and suite. They are part ... Europe direct. Governor Kennedy, who ... assume the duties of his new office in Victoria, was late Governor of Western Australia. He has a very intelligent appearance, a man of experience, and is highly spoken of by passengers on the steamer.

A NEW FOUNDRY.—The present quarters of the Oregon Iron Works are too small for the business of the concern, and they are putting up a new building, just west of the Academy. The frame of the main building, which is 60 by 40 feet, two stories high, was raised on Monday evening. In addition to this there is to be two "wings," one 40 by 40, and one 25 by 35 feet square. All together it will be a very desirable structure.

QUICK WORK.—That portion of the cargo of the Brother Jonathan destined for Portland, and amounting to about 600 tons, was all discharged at half past four o'clock yesterday afternoon, and the working time was but thirteen hours. This is probably the quickest work of the kind ever done in this port.

THE OVERLAND MAIL.—A private dispatch was received in this city yesterday, announcing that the authorities in Washington City have awarded a contract for the Sacramento and Portland mail to be continued as before.

THE Wilson G. Hunt carried 254 passengers to the Cascades yesterday, and 40 tons of freight. The down trip was not accompanied by many passengers, and the amount of treasure was light.

OAK GROVE THEATRE.—Yankee Sanders paid us a visit yesterday, and announced that Mrs. Hayne, Miss Glass, Mr. Waldron, and that Company, would play at Vancouver this evening.

TIME OF DEPARTURE.—The steamship commenced loading last evening, and according to the advertisement will leave at 6 o'clock this evening for Victoria and San Francisco.

COMMISSIONED.—A. C. Swift, Esq., of Idaho City, has been appointed commissioner of deeds for Oregon, by Governor Gibbs. An excellent appointment.

THE steamer Cowlitz arrived at four o'clock yesterday afternoon with 15 head of horses, ten passengers, a quantity of hay, etc.

MISTAKE CORRECTED.—We inadvertently omitted yesterday in the Democratic notice, the word political in reference to "secret societies." It is all right this morning, or rather it is as it was designed to be by the authors. The time of the County Convention is the 2d of April, as published, and not the first, as would, perhaps, seem more natural and fitting, considering the preposterous absurdity of the purpose of the proposed Convention.

FOUND.—Smyth, and one of his confederates in the late escape from the Dalles jail, Pohl, were found about five miles below the Cascades, on Sunday last. They gave themselves up, on being recognized, and were taken to their old quarters again, yesterday. Hoyt has not been captured, but was in the same vicinity the evening before.

WILLAMETTE THEATRE.—The petite comedy of "Naval Engagements," was produced last night, also, "Captain Charlotte" and "Christine of the Inn," three very fine plays. The principal characters were admirably sustained—Mrs. Leighton personated Mary Mortimer in a happy style. A rich bill is offered for this evening, composed of three superb plays.

PICTORIALS, &c.—Mr. McCormick, with his usual promptness, has furnished us with Harper's and Leslie's Magazines. He has everything that is worth reading, just received by steamer.

THANKS.—We are indebted to White & Bauer, General News Agents in San Francisco, for a file of eastern papers. Their counters are always full of excellent intelligence.

How to get Rich.

It is easy enough—what is the use in being poor! Fortunes lie ripe on every hand only waiting to be plucked. So mellow are some of them—such excessively soft things—that they drop into people's laps without their even having the trouble of shaking the tree. This statement relative to the ease with which one may get rich perhaps seems a hazardous and unauthenticated one, but it is susceptible of demonstration. Look at the mining claims in the market, selling at varying prices from $5,000 to five cents a foot. It is probable that in five years some of these may change places, and in a shrewd calculation of these chances lies the secret. Any one can make a fortune by buying into the right mine at the right time—being careful, of course, to sell out at the right time. Instances innumerable on every hand prove the truth of this proposition. Gould and Curry, Ophir, Savage, Gold Hill stocks, Potosi, Wide West and Real del Monte—to say nothing of Santiago—once were sold at merely nominal figures, and now see what they are—and have been. In some of the "affairs" mentioned there have been disastrous losses, but whose was the fault? It simply lay in the indiscretion of not selling out at the right time—people were too tenacious about holding on. We know a party who had nearly 100 feet of Del Monte that only cost between $2,000 and $3,000. There was a time when he could have retired with a clear profit of some $45,000, but he didn't. That was his fault. It is idle to say that in the case of a mine which fails the loss must fall somewhere; that it is more apt to fall on a widow with ten children, and engulf her all, than on the capitalist who could better afford to pocket the discount and cry quits. Widows shouldn't have ten children!

Notable instances of the glorious successes which crown mining speculations are visible on every hand. You cannot cross the street without jostling against a man who began life as an errand boy, and bids fair to end it a millionaire—either that or a pauper. For the men who have got suddenly rich we must refer the solicitous reader to the Directory—space fails us to enumerate them all. There is the alphabet of successful men, of which Andrew B. McCreery is the A. B. C., down to the W. and final X. Y. Z., which Downes Wilson represents. The corner buildings of the one adorn the junction of Pine street with Montgomery—the residence of the other, a monument more lasting than brass, crowns the apex of Essex street Hill.

Again, we repeat that it is easy enough to get rich—if one only operates rightly. Buy into the right claim, and a fortune is as inevitable as sunrise or taxation. The only trouble consists in determining the right mine and the right time—here it must be confessed that a little trouble is encountered. Out of 10,000 claims or more in market, to select the one that will reach big figures is almost as difficult as to tell the winning card in monte—the Spanish game of that name, or the Real del. The chances are about 9,000 to one—but then that one is in your favor. If a man bought 100 feet in any claim at five cents a foot, and it subsequently went up to $5,000—Gould and Curry figures—would he not make a clear profit of $499,995, to say nothing of assessments? This can be mathematically demonstrated by any pupil in the common schools, with a blackboard and a piece of chalk—it can be demonstrated with the Board of Brokers, which no one would think of comparing to a blackboard, equally well. Here is a chance for investment of capital to the man, woman or child that has $5, which should not be neglected, since it may, perhaps, never again occur in life. Two years hence there will probably be 100,000 claims in market, and then it will be puzzling to make choice more, even, than now. Only think of it! By the investment of a few dollars, any one in the community—even Bummer, if he were financially disposed—can incur the risk of having an income of several thousand dollars a month, if not more. The risk is at least equal to what the man would run of being struck by lightning who should stand in the street during a thunder shower, and it is said that even on this remote uncertainty standing bets are out. By a "singular combination of fortuitous circumstances," a whole family might get rich at once, from

> Father and mother,
> Sister and brother,
> And that nearer one
> Still, and a dearer one,
> Yet, than all other—

down to Kate, the cook, and Doll, the dairy maid. (Poetical quotations never look well in prose articles, but the above little burst must be pardoned, since the subject is a gushing one.)

Mining speculations not safe and judicious! Look at the facts: Here is a city with a population claimed at 100,000—there is scarce a child even in the humblest cradle that has not cut its teeth on a specimen piece of rock; so it is safe to count the whole population in—and out from this multitude there are at least 100 persons who have grown comfortably rich from investments in mines. Every one has heard of these lucky ones, and every one ought, to. Of the 99,900 who have failed, no mention is made, nor should there be—what right had they to fail? Widows, washerwomen, sewing girls, judges, clergymen—run over the whole industrial and professional gamut, and you cannot find one that has not been a dabbler, one that would not differ from the needy knife-grinder in having a story to tell were it asked. A shrewd, careful gentleman, who has seen life in most of its phases, and who "beat the game" in all, told us that the other day in desultory conversation with a careful Scotch lawyer, one of those men who look before they leap and don't leap then unless they carry a feather-bed with them, a man who would never be suspected of investing on an uncertainty, he asked him had he ever been tempted into buying feet. "Yes, a small operation," was the deprecating answer. "With what result, if I may ask, sir?" "A loss of $15,000," was the reply, and it was spoken in a whisper. Talking with a Dutch tailor who measured him for a suit of clothes, he asked a similar question—a loss of $3,000 was blushingly owned up to. The same gentleman told us that a few months since he offered $45,000 for 100 feet of Real del Monte, and felt rather unhappy because he could not get it! The same 100 feet to-day would bring between $3,000 and $4,000, if judiciously worked off. Every one knows the Wide West and its history. Careful and experienced men pronounced it the best thing in the Territory, and invested in it at large prices; but yesterday, comparatively, it might have stood against the world, and now who so poor as to do it reverence?

Still, we adhere to our original proposition; nothing is easier than to get rich if one only knows what to buy, when to buy, and when to sell. Strike it rich in the lower tunnel, the first time trying, and a fortune is at your feet. The experiment is a risky one, however, from the fact that a few failures prove fatal; the pitcher cannot keep going to the well forever, for the first two or three rude knocks crack or break it. And here a word of serious warning comes in: Let no man, woman or child, however ambitious, risk more than they can afford to lose. Let them in no instance peril the substance in grasping at the shadow. Let no possessor of feet, however brilliant may be his prospects, launch out in extravagance, discounting his imaginary dividends. Not for anything would we underrate the resources of the country, or, discourage mining enterprises. We would only raise a warning voice, asking people, for their own pockets' and comforts' sake, to look before they leap, peril no more than they can afford to lose, and remember that no mine can be called worth anything, or a safe investment, until material returns are had from it, and the permanence of the lead has been demonstrated by extensive prospecting and extensive working.—"Buying in" under other circumstances is as uncertain as betting on the turn of a card, as disastrous in its results as any other species of gambling.—S. F. Bulletin.

EMBARRASSING THE ADMINISTRATION.—The following is the opinion of Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson of New York on the course of a few of his brother Democrats:

Any Democrat that undertakes to embarrass the Administration, whether he loves or hates it, in such a crisis as this, is no democrat and no good citizen, and ought to be put up as a monument for scorn to point her slow-moving finger at. His genuineness must be about equal to that of the old revolutionary soldier I have heard of, in the interior of Pennsylvania. The inhabitants of the place had determined on having a 4th of July celebration of the old-fashioned, spread-eagle kind, and looked for a man for a revolutionary soldier to give interest to the occasion, and finally succeeded in finding one, an old German. He was brought a great distance and placed upon a platform near the orator, who waxed grandly eloquent upon the daring and patriotic deeds of the surviving hero, and at the close of the oration he was desired to give some of his personal recollections of the war. "You," said the president, "must have known Washington?" "Yes, I knew him." "Were you in battle?" "Yes, I surrendered to Washington." "You surrendered to Washington! How was that?" "I was von Hessian." [Great laughter.] Now, I think, when you find men prating about democracy, and embarrassing the Administration at such a time as this, when you explore their history, you will find they were "von Hessian." [Laughter.]

EXTRACT BUCHU,

A POSITIVE AND SPECIFIC REMEDY

FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL

AND

DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCEROUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for

MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

|---|---|
| Indisposition to Exertion, | Loss of Power, |
| Loss of Memory, | Difficulty of Breathing, |
| Weak Nerves, | Trembling, |
| Horror of Disease, | Wakefulness, |
| Dimness of Vision, | Pain in the Back, |
| Universal Lassitude of the | Muscular System, |
| Hot Hands, | Flushing of the Body, |
| Dryness of the Skin, | Eruptions on the Face, |
| | Pallid Countenance. |

These symptoms if allowed to go, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows

Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,

IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,"

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS

THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that

THE CONSTITUTION,

once affected by Organic Weakness,

Requires the Aid of Medicine,

to strengthen and invigorate the system, which

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

invariably does.

A Trial will Convince the most Skeptical.

FEMALES! FEMALES!! FEMALES!!

OLD OR YOUNG,

Single, Married or contemplating Marriage

IN MANY AFFECTIONS PECULIAR TO FEMALES the Extract of Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhea or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the Sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE!

No Family should be without it.

TAKE NO MORE BALSAM, MERCURY, OR UNPLEASANT MEDICINE FOR UNPLEASANT AND DANGEROUS DISEASES.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU,

AND

HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

CURES SECRET DISEASES

In all their Stages; At Little Expense;
Little or no Change in Diet; No inconvenience,

AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes a frequent desire and gives strength to Urinate, thereby Removing Obstructions, preventing and curing Strictures of the Urethra, allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in the class of Diseases, and expelling all Poisonous, diseased and worn out matter.

THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS

Who have been the victims of Quacks

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "POISON" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage.

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu

For all Affections and Diseases of the URINARY ORGANS, whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and

NO MATTER OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of these Organs require the aid of a Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,

And it is certain to have the desired effect in Diseases for which it is recommended.

Evidence

of the most Responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines.
